

COPPER COLLAR CURRICULUM

How much is a life worth? Don't settle, train with the best!

We recognize that no two organizations or teams are alike. Your mission, skill sets, experience, time, and budgets vary greatly. That's why we build our training specifically to meet your needs. We've assembled top-tier military special operations divers and senior leaders who are experts in facilitating high-risk training for Navy Divers, SEALs, EOD, and Marine Raiders in a vast array of world-wide diving and maritime operations. Our staff will develop tailored solutions for your organization based on cutting edge research, case studies, and hundreds of years of Navy Diving experience.

Experience THE ULTIMATE approach to High-Risk dive training!

Whether your mission is executed topside or ocean deep, we will collaborate and meticulously tailor a training package to master your environment. Examples of some of the vast array of training that Copper Collar Group can offer are found below. Contact us today!
